

WARMING UP

New Releases | Design | News

Winter Tips

This winter you will be spending a lot of time indoors, contemplating and yearning for the warm summer days we took for granted. Take this opportunity to revitalise your living space, and give it that warmth and comfort that can make you forget about the sideways rain and frosted windscreens.

Combine Walnut with rich greys such as Farrow and Ball's Purbeck Stone No275 to give contrast and really bring the wood grain to life. Imagine it, sitting down after a hard days decorating and just appreciating a glorious new environment that compliments your winter moods, houses your fruity red wines and provides a home for your roast dinners and chocolatey deserts.

Well done.

Seriously.

Fight Winter Blues By Sprucing Up Your Home

This winter, Locus are focussing on pieces of beautiful furniture to accompany the warmth of your home. During a time of bleak, grey skies, freezing winds and rain, your home becomes your primary source of warmth, comfort and happiness. A dark, detailed piece of Walnut can illicit all kinds of emotions. Awe inspiring, wonder and a sense of luxury that leads to fulfilment. When this beautiful wood is combined with high quality design, outstanding craftsmanship and uncompromising attention to detail, the product can be exquisite.

Already this Winter, we have seen the Positano released (see below), and soon, it will be followed by the Alfriston, and then the Cisswood. I cannot give away too much at this point, however I can say that they all feature Walnut, signature Locus features and all the trademarks of genuine quality.

Thank you

Thanks to our wonderful customers, avid subscribers and glamorous staff, Studio Locus is growing, quickly, into a beautiful Studio full of ideas, creations, inspiration and friends.

Our ethos has always been to put holistic well being first. The well being of our customers, the well being of our artisans, sales team and designers and this combines to enrich the well being of Studio Locus.

The positivity we have received only fuels our passion to create more wonderful furniture that puts smiles on faces, eases lifestyles and impresses friends and family.

Thank you.

From

Everybody here at Studio Locus.

Releases

Positano

The Positano's hand cut dovetails on this soft closing, solid walnut drawer box compliment its elegant shapes beautifully.

The grain matched body of the Positano demonstrating the fine craft and attention to detail available at Studio Locus. Our pride and passion flowing through every piece.

Available online

£425.00

Click here for more information and to buy